The mining and carrying companies continue to work in close harmony, and the markets have been for several months past readily absorbing all of the newly mined coal forwarded from the breakers. Coke production and output were stimulated last week by the organization of the billet pool. The improvement was not due to any effect the new steel combination has had on the iron markets. It is the expectation of what such a pooling of gigantic interests will bring that is causing a tightening up of the reins of [illegible] policy is to be pursued in the future. It is restricted to the confines of consumption. Under the agreement each firm enrolled in the pool will receive its pro rata share of work in the market. There will be no cutting of rates and pig iron will command a profitable price. The growth of demand for coke, therefore, will be healthy.—Connellsville Courier.

At 2:35 Wednesday afternoon, April 16, Hon. Jno. W. Yerkes, of Danville, called the State Republican Convention to order in the Auditorium at Louisville, which was beautifully decorated with the national colors and filled with a great throng of delegates and visiting republicans, and not a few democratic politicians, attracted thither by the promised battle of giants. The Rev. S. S. Waitz led the opening prayer. Mr. Yerkes then addressed the multitude. He congratulated his fellow Republicans and hailed the era when they assembled in State convention in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. After thirty years of standing by what they conceived to be the right a boasted Democratic majority of 40,000 had been overcome and transformed into an embittered and a divided minority.

"You remember," said the speaker, "the day of final surrender—the day when the first Republican Governor took the oath of office, and William O. Bradley—" (applause.)

"To-day representing your organization I return sincere thanks for aid from you in executing the plans made for bringing back victory.

"We recall that the founders of the party in the State were few in number but strong in faith and patriotism, but many of them fell before they saw the fruits of the battle.

"We are standing on the threshhold of another campaign. That a Republican will be elected, few doubt. Our friends, the enemy, take pleasure in suggesting that we are divided, but remember that they are more so. Some of us prefer a native Kentuckian to lead us in a campaign. Such a preference is not disloyalty to the candidate of any other State.

"We remember that the Kentucky candidate is sound to the core upon the tariff, and will maintain law and order in State or nation. (Applause.) We believe that the time has come when the honor of a presidential nomination should come to the South. There are among us who prefer the gifted son of Ohio—" (Applause.)

Mr. Yerkes referred to all the other candidates saying that whoever should be the Republican nominee would receive the hearty support of the people and be re-next President.

"Gentlemen," he continued, "one word personal. I desire to return thanks for the manner in which you have treated me during the past five years." Mr. Yerkes then read the following telegram:

Washington, April 14.—Hon. John W. Yerkes: Widespread Democratic uprising for free silver emphasizes the importance of a strong declaration for sound money by every Republican convention. The admirable financial plank in the last Massachusetts Republican platform is an excellent model. We should insist upon gold-standard money and protection to home industries as one and inseparable.

WALTER EVANS.

Mr. Yerkes then presented the name of Judge Thos. Z. Morrow, of Pulaski, for temporary chairman. O. W. Root, for the McKinley men nominated Geo. W. Denny. The vote was taken by call of the counties with the following result: Morrow 833 4-5 votes, Denny 742 1-5 votes. A large number of votes were not recorded for either side, and it was claimed that the bulk of these would go for Bradley's chairman, Judge Morrow, if the contests were investigated.

Fred H. Roberts, of Owensboro, was elected temporary secretary, and D. Elliot Kelley, correspondent of Cincinnati Commercial Gazette who played a part in the war scenes of the recent legislature, was made assistant secretary. In addition to this, and as a matter of compliment, the representative of the Republican press throughout the State were also made assistant secretaries.

The committees were then appointed and the Convention adjourned till 8 o'clock.

After supper the Convention was called to order at 8:45 o'clock and the time was consumed until 11 o'clock with speechmaking and filibustering while awaiting the report of the Committee on Credentials.

Then followed the report on Permanent Organization, naming Ex-Speaker Charles Blanford for permanent chairman and Fred Roberts permanent secretary. The McKinley men made a fight to put Geo. Denny and others up for their sake, but the gentlemen named refused to be slaughtered and the report of the Committee was ratified.

Mr. Blanford proceeded to make a most excellent and prompt presiding officer.

The Committee on Resolutions delayed proceedings by disbanding without making a report. They were ordered to reassemble, but the Convention adjourned for the night without hearing their report after having heard the nominating speeches for delegates at large.

When the Convention assembled on Thursday morning, the first business in order was the election of electors and assistant electors at large.

After this the report of the Committee on Resolutions was presented, as follows:

BRADLEY FIRST, MCKINLEY SECOND.

The Committee on Resolutions, made the following report, unanimously:

Reposing confidence in the wisdom, justice and patriotism of the people, and believing that a clear, concise and unequivocal declaration of the principles is due from the party to the voter present the following platform for the careful consideration of intelligent voters:

We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would involve the country in financial ruin. The gold dollar is the best dollar and the least subject to fluctuation, and for these reasons, and in order to conform our standard to that of the other great commercial nations, we favor it as the standard money of the United States and the maintaining on a parity with it of every other dollar, whether of silver or paper.

We favor a tariff so regulated as to protect the interest of all classes of our citizens upon articles which may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer and a home market to the producers; and in connection with this we favor the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity.

We believe that such a system will defray every Government expense, gradually liquidate all indebtedness, restore public confidence, put into motion every wheel of industry, rekindle the fires in our furnaces, re-establish the markets for the products of our farms and relegate to the rear the undue excitement now prevailing concerning the currency.

We believe in an American policy which will protect Americans and American interests in all parts of the world and will maintain the doctrine of non-interference in American affairs by the monarchies of the East.

We sympathize with the people of Cuba in their struggle for independence, and trust that their efforts may establish a Republic based upon the intelligence and patriotism of a free people.

We believe that the intelligence of its citizens is the safeguard of the republic and to that end we believe it is necessary to maintain and extend our system of free common schools.

We indorse the administration of Gov. Bradley as wise, prudent and patriotic, and especially do we indorse his action in in calling out the militia to suppress threatened violence and bloodshed during the closing days of the late session of our Legislature.

We indorse the late House of Representatives for its prompt and adequate measures for the relief of the State Treasury and the payment of large deficit left by the late Democratic Administration and condemn the Democratic majority in the State Senate for its refusal to assist the House in preserving the honor and maintaining the credit of the Commonwealth.

Believing in the availability and fitness of Gov. William O. Bradley as a presidential candidate, mindful of the splendid State victory won under his leadership, proud of his executive ability, knowing the soundness of his views on the financial and tariff questions, and confident that his nomination will secure for the Republican party the electoral vote of Kentucky and other Southern States, we declare him our choice for the presidency and instruct the delegates selected by this convention as delegates from the State-at-large to the next Republican National Convention to cast their votes for him as presidential nominee.

But, in the event his name is withdrawn before the St. Louis convention, and he cease to be voted for there, then they are directed to cast their votes for Hon. William McKinley, the great friend of protection, so long as his name shall remain before the convention.

The reading of the resolutions was received with great applause and their adoption was made unanimous, both by the Committee and Convention.

The ballot was then taken for election of delegates at large and Deboe, Tarleton, Smith and Burnham were elected. The first ballot resulted as follows: S. E. Smith, colored, 734; E. H. Hobson, 527; W. J. Deboe, 881, Rollins Burnam, 900 Albert Scott, 330; M. C. Hutchins, 393; L. P. Tarleton, 906; W. H. Holt, 794½; Vincent Boreing, 760, and W. A. Gaines, colored, 433½.

After the first ballot a motion was put forward by the Second District delegation, with E. T. Franks as spokesman, asking that the rules be suspended and S. E. Smith elected by acclamation. There were loud objections and the motion was withdrawn. However, because Smith was a pronounced Bradley man and there was a sentiment favoring the colored man for one of the delegates, as the call of the Counties proceeded Smith got the vote and one by one the opposing candidates with drew and finally Smith's election was made by acclamation. The alternate delegates were elected and the Convention adjourned sine die at 3 o'clock.

Secretary Riley is retained although long is not a member of the State Central Committee. This has been since the case. Mr. Riley has been Secretary for about ten to an [illegible] smokin

SOUTHERN COMPETITION.

The Lawrence Manufacturing Co. of Lowell, Admits that It Cannot Meet the South's Competition.

Mr. Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturer's Record, in the last issue of that paper, in referring to the southward tread of cotton manufacturing, says:

The decision two years ago of some of the largest cotton mill companies in new England to build mills in the South, such as the Massachusetts Mill at Rome, and the Dwight, at Gadsen, was not more significant of the destiny of the South as the controlling power in cotton manufacturing than the action taken a few days ago by the Lawrence Manufacturing Co., of Lowell. For several years the Manufacturers' Record has persistently insisted that the New England companies manufacturing coarse cotton goods would be compelled to quit that line of business or build mills in the South. Every investigation made by the highest New England authorities has demonstrated the correctness of this position. A few days ago the directors of the Lawrence Manufacturing company, of Lowell, a company having a capital of $1,500,000 and operating 120,000 spindles, voted to discontinue the manufacture of coarse cotton goods and to recommend to the stockholders to sell the entire real estate, machinery and plant of this part of their mill, paying back in cash to the stockholders the receipts to the extent of one-half of the capital stock, $760,000, and to confine their operations hereafter exclusively to the hosiery department of their business. The sheeting department, which is to be closed, now operates about 75,000 spindles.

Mr. C. P. Baker, the treasurer of the company, who recently went South with a view to locating a cotton mill in that section, in an interview with the Lowell Citizen, said:

"We intend to stop the manufacture of cotton cloth at Lowell for good. At present half of our product is hosiery, and the balance is cloth. We intend to keep on manufacturing hosiery. Outside of hosiery, the Lawrence Company has always been a manufacturer of coarse cloths, its largest product being sheeting. The Southern mills have become very large makers of this kind of goods, and we see no hope, with their low wages, of being able to meet it at a profit here. Instead of going there, as some corporations have, or are making a good deal of money here to fit up for the manufacture of fine goods, the directors of the company considered it best to return part of the capital to the stockholders, retaining at Lowell, the hosiery business only.

"This crisis has been pending for three or four years, or ever since the South commenced the manufacture of coarse goods largely."

Replying to the question as to what advantage the South has over Lowell in the cost of goods, Mr. Baker stated that it was "from one and one-half to two cents per pound, and this is on account of low priced labor, which formerly worked at farming." "Their cost of manufacturing," said Mr. Baker, which is the cost of labor, is 30 per cent. below ours, which is due to a very large surplus of help; and as this is nearly all paid for by the piece, it does not make much difference in the cost, whether the labor of the South is skilled or not. While the Southern mills do not manufacture enough goods to supply the American trade, they manufacture enough to make the price and we have to meet it. These goods nearly all go to the West and South. The treasurer of one of the New England mills, who lately returned from the South, in reply to a question which I asked as to the amount of surplus labor in the South, said that there was enough to last for generations."

The action of this old-established company, which has been in successful operation for so many years in deciding to sell its entire equipment devoted to manufacturing sheetings and retire from that part of the business permanently, shows that all that the Manufacturers' Record has ever claimed and ever predicted in behalf of the South and its advantage for cotton manufacturing is now being demonstrated. Ridiculed as the predictions of this paper were for many years, its statements receiving ten or twelve years ago but scant credit even in the South, the world is finally being forced to realize by the stern logic of events that this section in producing cotton goods at a lower cost than any other place, is setting the price for the world, and following this the business must inevitably come to the South. It is only another demonstration of the unequalled advantage of this section for manufacturing—advantages which have brought about the fulfillment of our predictions in regard to cotton manufacturing, and of many other lines of industry, as well as of immigration. The South's day is at last dawning.

HOPKINS THE BANNER COUNTY.

The output of coal in Hopkins county during 1895 was about one-fourth the total output of the entire State. In 1895 the exact output of the State was 3,207,770 tons bituminous and cannel coal. Hopkins County's output was 788,435 tons, all bituminous. This is a gain over the product of 1893 of 27,361 tons, and a loss of 23,323 tons as compared with 1894 which year showed gain over 1893 of 50,684 tons, the result of the "sympathetic strike," during which Hopkins County's miners worked daily.

The total number of employees in Hopkins county in 1895, was 1,887. Amiards employed 288. Fatalities at mines subject to inspection in State, 8. No fatal accidents in Hopkins.

Total coke produced in Kentucky during 1895, was [illegible]. Of this, 25,116 tons were made at Earlington.

OUR SUPPLEMENT.

THE BEE this week gives its readers a supplement of fourteen columns, half of which are filled with sound money truths, illustrated, setting forth the financial questions now of so much interest; and the other half filled with short stories, scientific notes and miscellaneous matter.

We expect to continue issuing a supplement of this size throughout this season from time to time, probably once each month, believing that THE BEE's patrons will fully appreciate our efforts to furnish them all their patronage will allow, and of such character as we propose.

The money question is a live issue, particularly during the campaign of this year. Tell your neighbor about how much THE BEE gives for one dollar and send us their subscription. Don't forget, at the same time, to settle your own subscription.

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

We take from the Evening Post the following list of counties in which the tax rate has so far been increased. The list gives rate of increase in each instance.

Adair—Increased 8 per cent. on lands, and personalty subject to equalization and 3 per cent. on town lots.

Bullitt—Increased 6 per cent. on lands, etc.; lots, no change.

Green—Increased 20 per cent. on lands, etc.; lots, no change.

Hancock—Increased 4 per cent. on lands, etc.; lots, no change.

Hardin—Increased 20 per cent. on lands, etc.; lots increased 5 per cent.

Harrison—Increased 5 per cent. on lands, etc.; lots, no change.

Hart—Lands and personalty subject to equalization increased 15 per cent; lots unchanged.

Henderson—Lands, etc., increased 1 per cent; lots increased 3 per cent.

Hopkins—Lands, etc., increased 15 per cent; lots increased 10 per cent.

Jackson—Lands, etc., increased 7 per cent; lots unchanged.

Hopkins has not been given so severe a sentence as two other counties passed upon, but nearly so. Fifteen per cent advance on Hopkins county's nearly $3,000,000 of lands and personal property will make a neat little sum.

Doubtless this advance, as applied to the lists of many citizens of the county, is eminently just; but the difficulty of the system is that the honest man must suffer for the dishonesty of his neighbor. The system puts dishonesty at a premium and makes all men liars.

THE Lexington Leader says: "The indorsement given Hon. Wood G. Dunlap at Falmouth yesterday was in the nature of an ovation. His reception was comparatively cool, but as he warmed to the explanation of his reasons for not qualifying, basing it upon the fact that his vote could not elect a United States Senator, he captured the convention. He grew eloquent toward the close, as, with tears in his eyes, he fought to regain the ground he had lost because his side of the story had never been given to the public. If he makes the same speech at the State Convention he will be a hard man to beat for delegate-at-large."

Well, in the State Convention, Woodn't probably made the same speech with the exception of the tears, but he wasn't in it for a minute for anything. He was only heard at all because anything was preferable to the howling of Louisville ward politicians and cake walker Lyons.

CHICAGO scientists have been experimenting with the X Rays upon groups of bacilli of various deadly diseases, and believe that the results already achieved will be substantiated by further experiments. They believe that the rays will destroy the germs of pneumonia, cholera, tuberculosis, etc. A guinea pig has been inoculated with the germs of tuberculosis, a dose that will kill in four weeks—and the subject will be allowed to progress half this time. The mysterious rays will then be applied and these men believe the pig will be restored. It is difficult to conceive such a blessing to the race, but we shall see.

A DISPATCH from Frankfort under date of the 20th instant, states that Gov. Bradley said, in an interview, to Representative Burnam of Madison county, that "the only event in which he would possibly call an extra session of the Legislature would be to secure written pledges from all Democratic Senators agreeing to pass bills providing financial relief for the State." As it is scarcely probable that Democratic Senators would agree to any such sensible measure THE BEE does not expect to have to chronicle the proceedings of na extra session.

REV. FRED HALE, of Owensboro, defines the anti-liquor resolutions thus: "My interpretation of the anti-liquor law is that it effects all those who sell intoxicating liquor, as a beverage, whether it be a saloon keeper, druggist, or wholesale dealer; also those who rent their property for the use of saloons, or for the wholesale liquor traffic; and all those who invest their money directly in the liquor traffic, whether they get part of the proceeds, as dividends, or whether they get interest on their money has directly invested."

DR. W. G. HUNTER made a disgusting grand stand play in the State Convention by having the votes of three or four counties cast in his favor for delegate at large and immediately withdrawn. He liked to hear his name pronounced but the hisses that nearly always accompanied the pronouncing of his name were not so palatable.

SINCE Elkton voted "dry," other towns in that vicinity are emboldened to attempt the same result. Hadenseville has petitioned the county judge for an election of "wet" or "dry." Guthrie has also petitioned and June 12th is the date set for the election at the last named place.

THE question of the place to hold the Democratic State Convention is being discussed. Owensboro is a most excellent place for a free silver meeting if that is the kind of Convention they want.

DR. HUNTER got a slap in the face, and a vigorous one, from Chairman Charles Blanford, when he appointed N. T. Howard, of Butler, as member of the State Central Committee from the State at large.

DR. A. JAMES was reelected State Senator on Tuesday in the Seventh district by a majority of some 200 votes. Dr. C. J. Walton was defeated in the Thirteenth by a somewhat smaller majority.

MAJOR CRUMBAUGH, of Hopkinsville, although announced as candidate for delegate at large was not [illegible] nomination.

HOPKINS COUNTY

And the Second District at the State Convention.

The delegates who attended the State Convention from Hopkins County were Dr. T. W. Gardiner, Chas. Ashby and W. H. Ross, of Court House District; Geo. Hill, Nebo District; R. J. Salmon, Geo. King and Walker Franklin, of Charleston District; Marion McCord and Paul M. Moore, of Earlington District.

Three of these delegates, Chas. Ashby, Geo. Hill and W. H. Ross were McKinley men; the remaining six were for Bradley.

Thus the 19 votes of Hopkins were divided in the ratio of 6 to 3, giving Bradley men 12⅔ votes and McKinley men 6⅓ votes.

The vote of each of the counties in which there was a division was thus divided; that is, in proportion as each faction was represented in the State Convention.

When the representation was changed by the desertion of any delegates the proportionate division of the County's vote was likewise changed.

Wednesday night things were not going to suit the McKinley men—when it developed that the Bradley men had the strength of the convention—and Chas. Ashby and Geo. Hill went home. Walker Franklin of the Bradley side also went home, like a dutiful son, because his mother would have been uneasy had he remained longer than he had said.

Thus the vote of Hopkins was changed. There remained 5 Bradley men and 1 McKinley man, and the vote was as 5 to 1 or 15 5-6 Bradley to 3 1-6 McKinley.

The chair ruled out fractions and the the Bradley boys magnanimously gave the other side 4 votes and took 15.

An agreement was entered into on Wednesday evening at the suggestion of some of the boys—who could not stand the heat, you know—that Hopkins' delegates should have the privilege of going out in the city without losing their votes. But it was thoroughly discussed and plainly stated and understood that if any delegate should leave the city he lost his vote.

A part of the Hopkins delegation encamped at the Louisville Hotel — Bradley's headquarters. Some stopped at the Willard, others at Senings.

At a caucus of the delegates of the Second District held at Louisville Hotel Wednesday morning, E. C. Vance, of Hancock, was made chairman, and Paul M. Moore, of Hopkins, secretary. The purpose of the meeting was to select a vice president and members for the Second District to serve on the various committees of the State Convention. G. W. Adams, of McLean, was chosen vice president. The following committeemen were chosen:

Credentials, E. P. McAdams, Hancock; Resolutions, W. L. Hardigg, Union; Permanent Organization, E. G. Sebree, Henderson; Rules and Order of Business, Dr. H. P. Sights, Henderson.

Wednesday night there was a lot of tiresome speech making, tolerated only because anything was preferable to hearing the howls and contentions of the Louisville delegation. It took place while the Convention awaited the report of the Committee on Credentials. Some were good, some miserable, some not at all because the crowd would allow nothing to reach them but jestures.

Woodn't Dunlap was allowed to offer his defense for his failure to take his seat in the late Legislature. It was simply a matter of impatient toleration that he was heard at all, and he would not have been heard under other circumstances.

After several speakers were hissed down without a hearing, Hon. E. T. Franks was called for, but failed to respond. The temper of the assemblage was to hear no one further, and Mr. Franks wisely refrained from speaking.

Webster was not represented on the vote for temporary chairman, but came in with full vote of 11 for Bradley candidates at large.

Christian's full vote of 36 was captured by Tarelton—Bradley man—candidate for delegate at large, on the first ballot, and came around on second ballot for S. E. Smith—another Bradley man—because he was a colored man. Thus the votes of Christian have not been entirely thrown away in the series of Convention just passed.

Blood purified, disease cured, sickness and suffering prevented [illegible] in the record made each year [illegible] Sarsaparilla.

THE CUBAN RESOLUTIONS.

Declaration of Cuban Belligerency Greeted with Enthusiasm by the People.

The Cuban resolutions passed by the House of Representatives at Washington in concurrence with the Senate are as follows:—

Resolved, that in the opinion of Congress, a condition of public war exists between the Government of Spain and the Government proclaimed, and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba; and that the United States of America should maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers, according to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States.

Resolved, further, that the friendly offices of the United States should be offered by the President of the Spanish Government for the recognition of the independence of Cuba.

The Philadelphia Press says: "Belligerency is a question both of fact and of policy. Mr. Hitt in his speech to the House on the Senate Cuban resolution had no difficulty in showing that belligerency existed as a fact in Cuba and that it was the policy of the United States to recognize it.

Spain, with a force outnumbering the insurgents three or four to one is unable, as Mr. Hitt pointed out, to exclude the forces of the Cuban Republic from the immediate vicinage of Havana. If the insurgents are in force there, where the Spanish forces are strongest, their occupation plainly extends over the island at a greater distance from the Spanish forces.

Whether an organized and settled administration has been established over the island in insurgent hands, they have excluded all Spanish authority. Belligerent or not measured by European conditions, the precise belligerent condition which they have established matches all the resources of Spain. Belligerency to war, and Spain has in line in Cuba to-day every man who could be armed and placed in the field for war.

These facts are admitted. Of them there is no question. Neither in there any of our past policy under like conditions. Our attitude toward any body of men struggling for freedom and independence for a century has been friendly. Our recognition has sometimes been premature. It has always been cordial. The revolted Spanish colonies eighty years ago received the recognition now proposed for Cuba. While the Cuban insurgents, from 1868 to 1878, never received a belligerent recognition, the despatches of Secretary Fish and later of Secretary Evarts upon the struggle distinctly claimed the right to interfere if the conflict was unduly protracted or characterized by extreme barbarity.

The insurgents to-day occupy a position which they never held then. Their forces are greater and they are moving freely in the western end of the island. Twenty years ago they were confined to the unsettled and mountainous regions in the east of Cuba. The insurgents have a right to the recognition proposed to them by the passage of the Senate resolution, and the instant and immediate effect of of their recognition as belligerents will be to make it difficult if not impossible for Spain to continue to the enormous cost of the struggle by selling bonds, as the Spanish treasury is now doing, secured by Cuban revenue.

Mr. Wm. Crain, of the Richland vicinity, is a Republican from away back, and names his children after the "Greater Lights" of the "Grand Old Party." He has a son named James Blain, another bears the name of Lincoln, a third is christened Grant Ingolls, and on the 15th inst., another boy advented, which was promptly named Bradley Franks, the late arrival elevated the beam to 12 lbs. Mr. Crain, it appears, is determined to found an animated gallery of political greatness, and when his limited facilities are considered, we think he is having phenomenal success in his undertaking to reproduce great men, should he be favored with sufficient longevity and his present run of good luck, he is certain of howling success.

It behooves every citizen in city, town and country to keep posted on the stirring events that will occur in this country and and the Old World within the next nine months. Its results will affect, either personally, directly or indirectly. This nation is on the eve of the most exciting presidential campaign in its history. European politics are in a very complicated state, and statesmen are applying their discoveries to many lines that will produce startlingly new things.

To keep abreast with the world one should read, in addition to the local or county paper, a live metropolitan newspaper, such as the Twice-a-Week Republic of St. Louis. It is one of the most progressive journals in the United States, and in each issue it gives the latest political news of all parties in the field, the latest general news of the world and many valuable special features besides. This model newspaper is delivered twice-a-week by mail for only $1 a year, or less than one cent a copy.

The price of the Daily and Sunday Republic has recently been reduced to only $5 a year by mail.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr G Caldwastle, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store, I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store house without it." Get a free trial at the Bernard Drug Store. 10-16-96.

Spring Medicine

Is a necessity because the tonic of winter air is gone, and milder weather, increased moisture, accumulated impurities in the blood and debilitated condition of the body, open the way for that tired feeling, nervous troubles, and other ills. The skin, mucous membrane and the various organs strive in vain to relieve the impure current of life. They all welcome to assist Nature at this time when she most needs help, to purify the blood, tone and strengthen the laboring organs and build up the nerves.

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla and have derived great benefit from it. After a very severe attack of the grip last winter I took a bottle and soon regained strength and flesh. It has entirely cured me of dizziness. My whole system was toned and strengthened." MISS ANNIE L. NOURSE, Bardstown, Kentucky.

Tariff Talk That Hurts.

A higher duty imposed upon any article that we grow or manufacture cannot injure that business. It is the low tariff that hurts, that causes larger imports of goods made by cheap labor, that interferes with the earnings of our own people, creates undue competition and reduces values to a point that is unprofitable to the producer. There was no check to business in 1890 when the McKinley tariff was under discussion, either before or after its enactment. A tariff that will afford greater protection to American interests is always better for the country. It means greater prosperity. It is the low tariff and low tariff discussion that injures our trade, because low tariff benefits other countries.—Springfield (Mass.) Morning Union.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO.

HOW TO CURE YOURSELF WHILE USING IT.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco to an inveterate user becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. "Baco-Cure" is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure. It is purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking "Baco-Cure." It will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to cure permanently any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest. "Baco-Cure" is not a substitute, but a scientific cure that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke.

Cured By Baco-Cure and Gained Thirty Pounds.

From hundreds of testimonials the originals of which are on the file and open to inspection, the following is presented:

Clayton, Nevada Co. Ark., Jan. 16 1895.
Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.:

Gentlemen: For forty years I used tobacco in its various forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc. etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Cure" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved of all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition. Yours respectfully,
P. H. MADDUX.

The New York Weekly Tribune

OF NOVEMBER 4th, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the disappointment of the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election, with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The New York Weekly Tribune,

the leading Republican newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.

Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large chances are being made in its details, tending in give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household.

Christian Endeavor now illuminates the land of the mid-night sun. The first society in Norway was formed a few weeks ago in Christiana.—Sunshine.

The State Endeavor meetings will be held in the Myles tobacco warehouse on West Broadway in Paducah. This warehouse is said to be one of the largest in the State, and is entirely too large for even the vast multitude who will assemble there.

Arrangements have been made for chairs to seat 4,200 people, and the hall will be festooned with 2,500 yards of purple and white bunting. The house will be lighted by electricity.

The C. O. & S. W. Road has made a rate of one fare for the round trip. Other roads will meet the rate.

Polk Lafoon Jr., is weighing coal at the Reinicke mines, vice Ed Conningham resigned, who has taken charge of the laundry.

Sunday morning, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, Ambrias Mitchell, aged Col Mitchell, a young white man about 18 years of age, and one Jim Williams, of color, had some words over a trivial matter. One word followed another, until it seems that Williams' ire was aroused, when he proceeded to sail into the said Mitchell, and landed a heavy right hand swing or a left upper-cut, with considerable force. Young Mitchell, having signed the agreement or posted any forfeit as to whether the bout should be fought with fists, clubs or otherwise, proceeded to "swipe" from some of his numerous pockets, a piece of "blue hardware," and retaliated on his adversary by hitting upon him; his foe, however, demonstrated the fact that he was not only a fast manipulator of his fists, but a clever sprinter as well, and was fast disappearing in the dim distance. When the smoke had cleared away it was discovered that the aforesaid Williams was traveling too fast a gait for a man that had been shot, and consequently no damage was done. Mitchell was arrested by Marshal Craig, but later was released on bond, the trial being set for Monday morning at 10 o'clock At the trial it was proven that Williams was a fitting target for the wild shooting and he was given $8.50 and the costs, while Mitchell was cleared. Williams then later on swore out a warrant against Mitchell, charging him with carrying concealed weapons!

At a meeting of the directors of the Madisonville Base Ball Club held recently, Mr. H. H. Holeman was elected president, and Mr. Owen Nisbet, Secretary, while Mr. James Francoway was chosen as Resident Manager. The Board of Directors is composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs Pres Rash, Sam Langley and James Francoway. A stock company was organized some time since with a capital stock of $500 to be in the nature with Mr. Doake Aydelott of Huntsville, Ala., was signed as manager, and Aydelott is one of the players both at home and abroad. Mr Aydelott has evidently signed some of the "cracker-jack" amateur ball player in the South, as his work so far speaks for itself, they having defeated the hard-hitting Nashville Athletics, who have the reputation of being one of the strongest amateur nines in the South), several times, and shutting them completely out on one occasion. They also were victorious over several other strong clubs, such as Hopkinsville, etc. Manager Aydelott and his reputation of ball-tossers will arrive in Madisonville the latter part of this week for a record of next, and will put in a few days before opening the season, in practice at the new park, on which work was commenced Monday, and is being pushed rapidly to a finish, so as to be ready for the opening game which takes place Thursday between "our boys" and the Athletics of Nashville. This will undoubtedly be a battle for blood from the start to the finish, as the Athletics will no doubt be on their mettle, looking for revenge for past defeats, and the boys will regard them our city in the National game will, of course, want to make their initial appearance a favorable one with the enthusiasts. The Madisonville players are all young and ambitious, and play ball for what it is worth. It was at first the intention of the Madisonville Management to enter the "Pennyrile League," but as that organization seems to have "flickered," through some misunderstanding, the directors at their last meeting, decided to withhold from entering. However, the Madisonvilles will cross bats with all teams representing the cities of the "Pennyrile Circuit," such as Owensboro, Henderson, Hopkinsville, etc., both at home and on their respective grounds, and they will also play other strong amateur teams. The "fans" and the "rooters" are anxiously awaiting the approach of the day set for the opening game, and from the time the umpire cries, "Play Ball!" until the last man is put out, they will no doubt make the welkin ring by their loud "Rahs for good Drug Store.

A "RUN DOWN"

and "used-up" feeling is the first warning that your liver has ceased to act. With a torpid liver and the impure blood that follows it, you've got many ills to add sorts of ailments. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures every one of them.

PIERCE CURE,

Office Corner of Main and Court Streets

Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—I can truthfully say that I believe your Golden Medical Discovery saved my life. When I began your treatment I was given up by the Doctors and my friends had lost hope of my recovery. I had suffered for years with torpid liver; I had chronic pleurisy and catarrh in a very bad form. Associated with hemorrhages—was confined to bed two months. In a few days after beginning your medicine I could perceive a slight change for the better; in three months I felt almost like a new person. Yours very gratefully,

MRS. MAGGIE E. BRANDFORD,
Williamsburg, W. Va.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials, free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The Bachelor Maids. The Maids were entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Dollie Dean. After the usual matter was disposed of, the Chat was read in which was a sarcastic criticism on an article in last week's Chat written by an outsider.

Delicious refreshments were served, after which little Misses Lillie Evans and Lizzie Dean entertained the Maids with their charming recitations. The Maids adjourned, feeling much better after spending such an enjoyable and profitable afternoon.

Results Tell the Story.

A vast mass of direct, unimpeachable testimony proves beyond any possibility of doubt that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually does perfectly and permanently cure discases caused by impure blood. The record of cures is unequaled and these cures have often been accomplished after all other preparations had failed.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, bilious ness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache.

Will Dedicate the Church. The M. E. Church South, of this city, will be dedicated next Sunday which is the date of the regular quarterly meeting. Rev. Elgin, Presiding Elder, will preach the dedicatory sermon, and a large attendance is expected.

The meeting that was begun on Monday evening will continue through next week, conducted by the Presiding Elder and Rev. J. T. Cherry, preacher in charge of this circuit.

NOTHING AS GOOD FOR COUGHS AS TAKE

SAYS "GOOD OLD GRANNY METCALFE," 87 YEARS OLD.

"I am 87 years old, and have used about all of the cough and lung remedies that have been sold during my life, and for the benefit of the suffering I will say that I have never found anything equal to DR. BELL'S PINE TAR HONEY. It gives quick and permanent relief, is prompt as well as other cough. We keep it in our house all the time, and would not be without it.

Mrs. M. A. METCALFE, 710 South 4th St., Paducah, Ky.

DR. BELL'S PINE TAR HONEY

Advances a new theory in the treatment of all Cough, Lung and Bronchial Troubles. Relieves and cures quickly.

Absolutely harmless, and pleasant to take. It cuts loose the mucous and allows it to be spit off without exertion or straining, and stops the cough at once by healing the inflamed parts, gives vigor and vitality to the respiratory organs and produces a condition in which all the functions are carried with regularity and harmony.

Prizes Offered. An individual armed with a Faber and scratch book visited the public school of our city Tuesday morning and by the authority of THE BEE offered prizes for the best written essays by the several grades upon the following subjects: To the Second and Third grades a prize will be awarded for the best composition upon "Nature Work," To the Fourth grade a prize will be given for the best essay upon - "The Earlington School." To the Fifth grade a reward will be given for the best description of the "Industries of Earlington." All compositions to to be clearly written and unsigned, the teachers will number each essay and they alone will know the names of the writers, so no partiality or favoritism can possibly be shown in awarding. There competent judges will be selected to pass judgement upon the compositions submitted. The prize essays will be retained by THE BEE and must be neatly written. Prizes will be awarded on the last day of school. Now let the boys and girls do their level best and see who will be the fortunate ones.

Base Ball. Last Saturday saw an interesting game of ball between the Earlington "Quick Steps" and the Madisonville "Sluggers." The contest lasted five innings, at the end of which the "Quick Steps" showed up ten scores to the "Sluggers" three.

First Baseman Browning was absent. The position of the "Quick Steps" were as follows: Henry Gough, catcher; Charlie Barden, pitcher; Eldred Davis, S. stop; W. Phillips, first base; Charlie Barnett, second base; Charlie Webb, third base; Edward Rule, left field; Lenoard Goodloe, centre field; Cecil Webb, right field; Charlie Doyal, substitute; Buck Shaver, substitute.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Master of Trains, Devaney, now holds a school for the examination of the trainmen on some new rules lately adopted.

A brother of W. D. Caviness, of this place, made him a visit last week, for the first time in fifteen years. He is a conductor on the Illinois Central.

Few fishermen appear to have better luck than Agent Eldridge, who, it is said can pull out the finny tribe, when those about him can not even get a bite.

Walter Wright kept house last week, while he did not go fishing, his wife being absent on a visit to relatives at Crabtree Foreman L. H. O'Brien has received the boiler for the new machinery he soon expects to put in his new machine shop, so it can be seen that the car shops here gradually increase in capacity.

Pay car passed south last week, paying off the Independence division. Superintendent Dickson, Master of Trains Devney, Supervisor Sullivan and Dispatcher Ed Winn were aboard

We are sorry, yet it is nevertheless a fact that Supervisor Sullivan has joined the baldheaded company. Ask him to show you his head. James says he has had his head shaved to promote rapid growth of hair.

The condition of Mr. Wm. Whitsell, who lost week, we reported as being injured by falling from a train, has been rather a serious one. At times he appears rational, and then again his mind fails him, and it is the fears of his friends that his injuries may yet prove fatal.

In a recent interview on the railroad situation, George Gould expressed himself as follows:

"What we need is some legislation looking to the relief of the railroads. Two-thirds of the railroads of the country are in the hands of receivers or have recently been reorganized and are trying it again. I attribute this bankruptcy of the railroads of the country almost entirely to the operations of the interstate commerce law. The law has paralyzed the railroads, and they will never prosper again until it is repealed, nor will you see any more road building while that law is in effect.

"The laws are too oppressive on invested capitol. The repeal of the interstate commerce law, for instance, would help the country amazingly by permitting existing roads to prosper, and by encouraging the building of other roads. This would throw lots into the railroads and other collateral industries at once."

Some time ago, Jake Wooldridge sent a package of money by express to the office at Nashville, and in his haste to get it off neglected to ren a stitch through the envelope as is required by the rules of the company. In due time he was notified that the money had been abstracted from the package and he had to make it good to the tune of $60. Well, time went on and nothing more was thought about it. Jake felt that he would be more careful next time, a few days ago the company received a letter enclosing $70, the writer stating that he had gotten the contents of the package sent by Wooldridge, and that he retained it with interest. The package was somewhere in 1893, and the thief desired to return it with interest. He died soon after making provision for the return of the money; said he did not wish to die without replacing it. The company sent the money here to Jake Wooldridge, last week.—Springfield Herald.

United States District Judge Clark handed down a decision on April 17, in which he dismissed the petition of the Interstate Commerce Commission filed against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company and seeking to compel that road to obey the order made by the commission regarding coal rates to Nashville.

This order was to the effect that so long as the company charged $1.40 a ton for transporting coal from Western Kentucky mines to Memphis it should not charge exceeding $1.40 a ton for hauling coal from the same mines to Nashville.

The defense of the company was that the low rate charged to Memphis was not not accepted voluntarily by the company, but was forced upon them by reason of the fact that Memphis was supplied with coal from Pittsburgh and other Ohio river points at rates so low that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company was compelled to accept $1.40 a ton or discontinue the business of carrying coal to Memphis. The case was submitted to the court on complaint of a number of Nashville citizens filed about four years ago. Judge Clark dismissed the petition at the cost of the commission. The question as to the Nashville rate was not passed on, nor decided, not being involved in the suit. The case was argued at Chattanooga several weeks ago.—Courier-Journal.

Down in the Mines.

The building of new railroads now seem to be for the purpose of entering new coal fields throughout the United States.

Prof. Campbell has now perfected some decided improvements in his slack washing machine in use by the St. Bernard Company here.

A party of prominent railroad men from Ohio and the East carefully examined the Eastern Kentucky coal fields last week, preparatory to extending their road to that point.

Mr. W. D. Caviness of the St. Bernard mechanical force is now at work at Dawson, where he is laying additional pipes for the convenience of the loading hotel at that place.

Secretary Danning of the Co-operative mine, was called to Howell last week, on account of the sickness of his wife, now visiting there.

Mr. Smith, a miner in the employ of the St. Bernard Coal Company, died suddenly from heart trouble last Saturday. He had been sick for several days, but his relatives anticipated no serious results.

Mr. Robert Pritchett, now at work in the Pittsburg, Kansas mines, writes us in regard to a coin made by the miners of that place, which is certainly a commendable one, and that is on the burial of one of their number killed in the mine, the mines do not run on that day.

To show the dull business at some of our mines we call attention to the fact that the Barnesly mine did not run a day last last week, and with such extreme warm weather as that of the past week, what do the people want with coal?

The annual meeting of the St. Bernard stockholders took place last week. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the re-election of the present officials. The reports on business done the past year showed a prosperous one.

Mr. Thomas Whitford came home last Sunday from Empire on a brief visit. He reports business at the Empire mine so slack, that a fishing party has been organized for Tradewater river

It is reported that in Indiana some coal operators made some metel checks, which were circuited among the miners as money, when the United States authorities had them arrested, on the charge of issuing a counterfeiting medium without authority, we suppose.

San Francisco reports an unprecedented exodes of miners and prospecters for Alaska, even at this early period in the season.

Southern iron continues in demand, "The combination among large producers has made prices firmer, and on advance averaging 25c. per ton for the various grades of iron is reported at Birmingham.

The suit against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad to compel it to haul coal from Kentucky to Louisville at cheaper rates was dismissed at Nashville, Friday, at the cost of the prosecution.

The Uniontown Telegram say: "W. P. D. Bush, of Louisville, Ky., the owner of the old Highland Coal Company property, in, under, and around this city, is now here for the purpose of organizing a company or corporation to put coal mines on said property in operation," and the Telegram backs a great deal on the supposition that Ill. Central seems to be coming their way.

Strange indeed, it is that a man of the type that "Debs" is should even be recognized by the miners of this country, yet we clip from the Philadelphia Press, the following which shows how near the order of the United Mine Workers came to endorsing him for President: "At Columbus, Ohio, last Thursday, the United Mine Workers Convention adopted a resolution which is practically an endorsement of Debs for President. A resolution was introduced recommending the nomination of Eugene Debs for President by the Populist National Convention at St. Louis, in July. About two-thirds of the delegates were wearing McKinley badges, and W. C. Webb of Kentucky opposed the idea of adopting a resolution favoring a Populist candidate with a peck of McKinley badges in sight was ludicrous. The following substitute was adopted:—"That we recommend to the wage-earners of the country the advisability of nominating a representative wage earner or a well-known friend of the wealth-producers for the Presidency of the United States."

In the March number of the New York Bond Record is an article on anthracite-coal by William Griffith, which seeks to answer the questions: "How much anthracite is there, and how long will the supply last?" and "What properties of the future do the various interests control and how much can they ship to market?" Mr. Griffith's figure by quoting liberally from an article by President Harris, at the Reading Railroad, on this question, in which Mr. Harris estimated that the original contents of the anthracite fields amounted to about 14,453,400,000 tons, of which 8,375,000,000 tons, or about 58 per cent, remained to be worked. With a production of 45,000,000 tons a year, this supply would last 185 years, although Mr. Harris estimated that of the actual coal mentined only 5,060,700,000 tons would ultimately be mined the period of use one-half Mr. Harris said we could have coal for 100 years at the rate of 60,000,000 tons a year. Mr. Griffith's own article, which is an elaborate one, accompanied by long tables and detailed maps, works out estimates on a basis of his own. He gives a tabulated estimate of the approximate future supply of the railroads entering the Wyoming region. He claims that Delaware & Hudson's supply, at the rate of 1895 shipments will last 50 years; Ontario & Western's 9 years; Erie Railroad's 21 years; Susquehannah & Western's, 18 years. Pennsylvania Railroad's, 52 years. Lackawanna's, 51 years: Lehigh Valley's, 57 years; Central New Jersey's 124 years; Pennsylvania Railroad's, 52 years. The greed total of unmined coal in the Wyoming region he estimates at 1,278,136,750 tons with a supply of 52 years. Griffithe gives no figures as to other coal fields. —Scientific American.

UNTOLD MISERY
FROM RHEUMATISM

C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending from them, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assured, by the doctors, that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphine. I had my limbs bandaged to stay, in splints, in positions; but these gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful tortures, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 165 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad black smith."

Just how to [illegible] proportion the sugar, butter, eggs, etc., that compose it. Of course, you select the very best of these articles, but what does quality amount to when you don't proportion right? You know if you put in too much butter "it's a failure." If the proportions are regulated by an experienced cook, are weighed and measured (not guessed) and are of uniform quality, then the cake is a success, and the housewife may take a certain degree of pride. FACTS ABOUT CARPETS.

Free Trade Tacks Fall Against Official Figures.

New York Editor Posts His Own Notebook Poses the Lie, But Is Discovered to Do the Like.

McKinley newspapers tell their readers that the imports of carpets have been largely increased under the present tariff. This is not true. Compare last year's total of $1,987,468 with the total of $1,000,384 in 1893, under the McKinley tariff. Why, the annual average for the first three years of that tariff was $1,413,211, or more than last year's total. How McKinleyism has encouraged the industry of living!—N. Y. Times, February 15, 1896.

The free trade Asinina of the New York Times is getting all tangled up with his carpets and tacks. The facts won't ladorse his theories. He twists and turns his figures, but still his carpet lies won't keep down. His free trade tacks won't stand against good, strong protection points. The statistical abstract issued by the treasury department gives the qualities and values of our imports of carpets during the four McKinley tariff years, as follows:

IMPORTS OF CARPETS.

Year ending June 30.	Square yards.	Value.
1894	658,606	$1,373,183
1895	622,832	1,000,384
1896	686,364	1,580,814
1897	611,756	849,858
Protection averages	607,778	$1,200,796
1898	577,250	1,426,624
Free Trade increase	275,290	$ 225,828

The 1895 figures are for the calendar year, this being the only complete 12 months under free trade in wool. We leave our readers to imagine in what direction "the industry of lying" has been encouraged. Again we quote:

"But a very large part of the imports classed as carpets is composed of rugs and hand-made rugs. The value of real machine-made carpets brought into this country is small."

We suppose that the eastern "hand-made rugs," made possibly by labor that is even cheaper than the miserably paid British help, do not take the place of American carpets, that people buy both when they need only one, placing the rugs on top of the carpets, or, perhaps, feed them to moths in the attic. No matter where the rugs or carpets come from, each one of them takes the place of an American product.

Now let us see how "small" is the proportion of machine-made carpets. Last year the United Kingdom sent us 576,267 square yards out of a total of 873,456 square yards of carpet imported, over 66 per cent. of the whole. Other European countries sent us 245,694 square yards, leaving 71,500 square yards sent here from Japan and other countries in the orient and elsewhere. As for our exports of carpets, they were 75,000 square yards less under free wool in 1895 than in 1894.

There used to be some display of skill and artifice in the mendacious methods of the New York Times, but we are sorry to note that it has now degenerated into nothing better than a blundering dont-care-a-hang, everyday sort of liar, so that a ready reference to the official democratic statistics promptly exposes the fraud. But we suppose it must tie for a liking.

Foreign Commerce Figures.

Some very striking facts are shown by studying the returns of our foreign commerce during the last ten years. The figures are as follows:

ALL FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Total foreign commerce	Increase.	Decrease.
1886 ..... $1,709,952,702	.....	$16,472,295
1894 1,760,500,998	.....	147,581,712
1891 1,907,082,710	.....	102,609,13
1892 2,010,314,054	153,736,941	.....
1893 1,857,577,113	.....	152,736,941
1894 1,760,500,998	.....	97,076,115
1895 1,863,577,113	103,076,115	.....
1896 1,965,683,462	102,106,349	.....
1897 1,960,010,046	.....	5,673,416

From 1886 to 1893, under the Morrill tariff, the total foreign commerce of the United States increased by $297,625,000, or 17 per cent. From 1893 to 1896, under republican administration of the McKinley tariff, our foreign commerce increased by $277,000,000 a year more during the same period, or 15 per cent., under a democratic administration, the returns of our foreign commerce show a loss of $250,000,000 a year. Under the first year of the Cleveland-free-trade-tariff-reform-tariff-for-deficiency only till the value of our entire foreign commerce fell below one billion dollars. We have been losing our foreign trade at the rate of $100,000,000 a year under the present democratic administration, and it is now of less importance than it was six years ago.

When Labor Was Busy.

Under the McKinley law there was sufficient revenue to meet every public demand, and during the existence of the $40,000,000 were added annually to the circulating medium. Under republican financial management silver remained at par with gold, and labor was employed everywhere. Confidence was restored and treasury notes were kept in circulation among the common people of this country in order to meet the demands occasioned by the establishment of new industries, and labor and capital everywhere found profitable investment and employment.—Hon. Lester C. Pritchard, United States Senator, of North Carolina.

Foreign Trade Losses.

American cattle, fresh beef, tallow, bacon, pork and lard, that we shipped to the markets of the world last year, realized less money for us than what we sold in 1894, the total loss being about $15,870,000.

What People Want.

More tariff and less bonds would give the people better satisfaction in these days of government deficit notes. Cleveland administrations and Wilson industry-destroying measures.—Daily Tribune, South Bend, Ind.

EXPORTS OF MANUFACTURES.

Democratic Stories Investigated with the Regular Result.

Free traders have been very joyful over an increase in our exports of American manufactured goods. As long as this is not brought about by the sacrifices of our home market it is, indeed, an encouraging sign. Last year, 1895, we sold in foreign countries $25,354,803 more of our manufactures than in 1894. This includes an increase of $14,249,271 in our exports of mineral oil, refined or manufactured, leaving only $9,103,531 of increase for all other manufactures exported. This the larger value of our mineral oil exports has been of no value to American labor because it represented shipments of 47,714,073 gallons less oil in 1895 than in 1894. The refining or manufacturing of 42,000,000 gallons less oil for export has deprived labor of work. The increase in value merely represents an increase in the profits of the oil combine, which advanced the price of oil so sharply last year. It did no good to American labor. Our labor suffered through having less oil to refine or manufacture, and our labor also suffered through having to pay more money for oil when earning lower wages.

Excepting the oil exports, we have $9,103,531 worth more of American manufactures shipped abroad last year than in 1894. Against this we must set the increase in our imports of foreign manufactures, thus leaving the following exhibit:

EXPORTS OF MANUFACTURES.

Total increase, 1895 over 1894	$23,353,302
Mineral oil, refined or manufactured, decrease in quantity, gals.	47,714,073
Increase in value	14,249,271
increase in all other manufactured exports	$ 9,103,531
Increase in all manufactured imports	82,613,030

Net loss to the United States ..$83,511,259

If it is advantageous for us to increase our exports by $9,101,531, it must be correspondingly more advantageous to the foreign countries that increased their exports by $92,613,000. Deducting our small gain from their greater gain leaves a net loss of $83,511,259 to our manufacturers through the capture of our markets by foreigners, over and above the amount of their markets that we captured.

It should be noted that our manufactured exports do not include such a product of flour, which is certainly equally as much a "manufacture" as oil. In 1894 we exported flour worth $58,924,706, but in 1895 only $50,292,886, a decrease of $8,631,820. Had this manufactured product been included in the democratic treasury statement, our total excess of exports last year would have dwindled down to $470,611, as compared with increased imports of manufactures worth $92,613,000. It is just as well to be more thoroughly explanatory than the free-traders are.

"If we do our own buy, we cannot sell." How about this?

The Gold Must Go.

London financial authorities figure out that the trade balance against this country now averages $2,000,000 a week. That is, we buy in Europe that amount more than we sell. This sum must be paid in gold or in American securities, and when the latter are not selling on the other side, only gold will foot the bill.—Springfield (Mass.) Homestead.

Which is the Best for Us?

A democratic tariff encourages the foreign shop and discourages the domestic shop. A democratic revenue tariff builds up the foreign factory and tumbles the home factory. But the republican party is for the American workingman.—Hon. William McKinley.

Mistakes About Tree Growth.

I have before me two newspaper clippings, one of which appeared in the New York Sun in 1889 under the heading of "Queer Things in Trees;" the other is from a Kansas paper of the present year, and which bears the title of "How the Tree Has Grown." The Sun clipping tells of a Westfield, Conn., apple tree which has a large bowlder inside fork ten feet from the ground; the other of a Topeka tree of which the lower limbs are now 50 feet from the ground though they could be touched by a man standing on the sidewalk 25 years ago. The bowlder in the fork was no near the ground that it could be sat upon a generation ago, the Sun says. I wonder if the writers of the articles in question know that trees grow only from their extremities, and that limbs and bowlders in forks cannot possibly be an inch farther from the ground now than they were a century since?—St. Louis Republic.

THE COLORED MAN AT THE STATE CONVENTION.

W. H. Ross was the colored delegate from Hopkins county.

The statement of the Courier-Journal that the colored man were dissatisfied with the rulings of Chairman Blanford is a misrepresentation. The reporter takes a single instance as proof of his assertion. Mr. Blanford was exceedingly considerate toward the colored man, as indeed he was toward everybody who addressed the chair. Many a man who addressed the chair was very much out of order.

S. E. Smith was a pronounced Bradley man and that is what elected him delegate from the State at large to the St. Louis Convention. There was also a strong sentiment to give the colored man recognition, but W. A. Gaines, the McKinley colored candidate received only 433½ votes on first ballot. Smith's vote on first ballot was 734. It required 838 votes to elect.

The Courier-Journal says: "One of the number to congratulate S. E. Smith upon his election as delegate-at-large to the St. Louis convention was Mrs. Albert Scott, who is scarce a less master of the science of politics than is the Colonel himself." The Looisville vote went to Smith after Col. Scotts' withdrawal.

The scribe and Rev. Merriweather were in Providence Sunday.

Bud Smith is now working at Crabtree mines.

Miss Ella Hawkins, a highly respectable young lady of our town, is receiving calls to teach music, but cannot accept any on account of her much needed presence at home.

During the winter of 1893, F. M. Martin, of Long Reach, West Va., contracted a severe cold which left him with a cough. In speaking of how he cured it he says: "I used several kinds of cough syrup but found no relief until I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved me almost instantly, and in a short time brought about a complete cure." When troubled with a cough or cold use this remedy and you will not find it necessary to try several kinds before you get relief. It has been in the market for over twenty years and constantly grown in favor and popularity. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle at St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; Ben T.
